

Girl Power and Macho Man Project

Overview

Established in 1987 and 1918 respectively, the Jakaranda and Louis Botha Children's Homes are non-profit organisations and Article 21 registered companies that develop and care for the welfare of abused, abandoned and neglected children who have been placed in our care by the South African Children's Court. Our primary purpose is to provide the children with clothing, housing, schooling, food, security and stability. Additionally, we aim to provide the children with the necessary therapy, life skills, love and emotional support that the children need to become responsible adults and to curb the cycle of abuse.

Our Children

Jakaranda Children's Home (19 Houses) currently looks after 250 children between the ages of 18 months and 18 years. Louis Botha Children's Home (8 Houses) currently cares for 100 children between the ages of 7 and 18 years. The children are divided into groups of 13. Each group lives in a separate house under the supervision of house parents.

The Project

Personal hygiene entails bathing regularly, keeping your hair clean, trimming fingernails and toenails, brushing your teeth and using deodorant. Personal hygiene can enhance your self-confidence and improve your chances of success in many areas of your life.

We need to teach our children about proper hygiene and when they receive their own toiletries it also teaches them to be responsible and not to waste.
